BONNIE DYER CANADA

Bonnie Dyer is from Ontario, Canada. For 25 years she owned and operated her own successful dance studio, offering competitive and recreational classes in the Performing Arts. As a choreographer she has been presented with numerous choreography awards.

She was also director and co-choreographed for the opening ceremonies for the Ontario Summer games. Bonnie also choreographed several musicals for the RCMP Inc. Stage Productions.

During her years as a dance teacher she was a member of the Professional Dance Teachers Association and the Canadian Dance Teachers Association.

Her students competed throughout Canada and the U.S. and have won numerous awards, including dance scholarships to many renowned dance training schools. Many of her dancers have gone on to open their own studios or have become Professional Performers.

Bonnie is Chairlady of the Canadian Dance Organization (Team Canada Dance) and the IDO representative for Canada. She is the former Director of the Canadian National Dance Championships and was the first to host the World Jazz and Modern Championships in Toronto, Ontario Canada.

As well as an IDO Judge, Supervisor and Chairman of judges. She is also a member of the IDO disciplinary committee, Chairlady of the IDO Ballet Department and recently accepted the position as the Chairlady for IDO The America's (IDO American Conference)

“A special thank you to everyone that has taken the time and interest to enhance dance education, and to the parents and teachers that have taken the time to enrich your children with the wonderful art/sport of dance!

I wish everyone a successful dance experience and to the dancer's good luck in competition, but most important.....enjoy yourself, dance from your heart. If you do this, you have already won!.....”
